

Galt UMC This Week

Galt UMC is a warm welcoming family who worship, pray, learn, and love one another by serving our community so that everyone can encounter the Risen Lord and experience transformation through God's Grace.

April 19, 2021

Pastor Mary continues on her final day of vacation today. She returns to the office tomorrow, Tuesday, April 20.

Learning Takes Three Times (at least)

Pastor Mary welcomes the chance for you to read, as well as hear, her sermons. She has copies of all past sermons. So, if you have a favorite and would like to receive a copy she can email it to you or put it in snail mail. If you would like to receive written copies on a regular basis, just let her know.

In Loving Memory

The memorial service for longtime member Margaret Duecker has been scheduled for Friday, May 14, at our church. Time TBA

Congregation Town Hall Meetings

If you missed last Sunday's presentation, you still have an opportunity to catch the ZOOM meeting on Wednesday, April 21, at 4:00pm. This meeting will contain information learned from our six month "exploration" of the use of the two church owned lots. Our Exploratory Team will present material learned, then give an opportunity for questions and comments from the congregation. Here is the link to join the meeting -

Every Sunday the pastor would observe Sam Campbell and his wife, Sara, holding hands in the front pew. And they held hands all through the service. It made him happy to see two such loving folks.

One Sunday, greeting them as they filed out the door, the pastor said to Sam and Sara, "It sure does my heart good to see two such loving people as you two holding hands through the service. It's such an inspiration."

Sara replied, "Pastor, it's the only way I can keep him from cracking his knuckles during the service."

An epitaph on a tombstone read:
"Remember, man, as you pass by, as you are now, so once was I. And as I am now, so must you be. Prepare yourself to follow me."

Beneath the epitaph a living wit wrote:
"To follow you I'm not content, until know which way you went."
